To ensure the safe travel of all our passengers you must adhere to the following conditions whilst travelling on one of our day excursions
Note: All conditions are subject to change to follow government guidelines

Stay Safe – Travel Safe - Respect Other Passengers

- The driver will be wearing a facial covering at all times.
- Please ensure while you are waiting for the coach and waiting to board the coach you respect the space of any other passengers.
- Hands must be cleansed by using the hand sanitiser provided before boarding the coach.
- We would appreciate that all passengers wear their own face covering when boarding the coach, during the pick ups , also when getting off the coach at either the destination or at the end of the journey. You may have to walk past other passengers when boarding or alighting so it is important that masks are worn to respect other passengers.
- After the coach has left the last pick up point although we recommend for you to wear your mask for the duration of the journey you are free if you so wish to remove your mask, but we do ask that it is worn when you leave the coach at the destination or when the coach starts to drop off other passengers.
- You have been given a seat number either on your ticket or by the driver. Please remain in this seat and refrain from moving to an empty unoccupied seat. The empty seat might have been left empty for a reason to enable a bit of space between passengers.
- Please also refrain from moving around the coach whilst the vehicle is moving . This might make other passengers feel uneasy about you encroaching in their space.
- Any Toilet facilities on board the coach will only be available on specified excursions and for emergency use only.
- As part of our safety briefing, upon arrival at the destination the driver will exit first. Then once they have left the vehicle all passengers may safely disembark starting from the front. Please let any passengers in front of you leave the coach first so you aren't walking past them unnecessarily. Please observe other passengers space whilst waiting to disembark and following any instruction given by the driver.
- Our driver will drive with the roof vents open to supply fresh air which helps prevent the spread of germs. The use of other ventilation systems are restricted under the present legislation.
- During your visit and prior to you returning to the coach , the driver will clean all touch points on the coach and spray with disinfectant.
- Also during your visit please ensure you wash and sanitise your hands at every opportunity.
- On returning to the coach, please ensure you to adhere to other passengers space while you are waiting and boarding the coach and please use the hand gel provided when boarding the coach.
- Please ensure you take all your belongings with you when you disembark the vehicle.
- Think safe whilst travelling. Do not drop litter on the coach, take all rubbish off with you.
- Customer cancellations are non refundable or transferrable.
- We reserve the right to cancel any excursion due to insufficient numbers.
- If we have to cancel the excursion for any reason then a full refund or another excursion will be offered.
