

LLANDUDNO

Four Oaks Hotel

12th April - 16th April 2021

Llandudno is as seaside towns were meant to be, level walking, wide promenade with seating all the way, crescent shaped beach with golden sand and donkey rides. The natural beauty of Snowdonia provides everything you could want from a summer holiday. The traditional appeal of this seaside town, the largest resort in Wales famous for its Victorian style and Edwardian elegance is evident throughout the town. Llandudno is one of Britain's finest resorts with its crescent promenade, carefree shopping streets and wealth of visitor attractions. One of its best known landmarks is Great Orme the 680 feet high towering limestone headland now designated a site of Special Scientific Interest, providing impressive views of Llandudno from the summit reached by Britain's only cable-hauled Tramway or Britain's longest cable-car.
